

Doolittle's
Raid On Tokyo
Made At Noon
From Carrier

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

Washington, April 21 (AP)—Tokyo could tremble again today in memory of the bombs which struck terror into Japan's vulnerable heart a year ago.

For the War department promised that those were just a gentle prelude to the pounding to come, and disclosed that the "Shangri-La" from which the bombers struck was a ship at sea—a floating base that could be multiplied to maul the isle of Nippon from almost any direction.

Ripping away at last the mystery that had cloaked the Pacific war's most thrilling aerial exploit, the official story of the raid disclosed:

Base Was Carrier

That the base from which Maj. Gen. James H. Doolittle's 16 twin-engined bombers took off to blast war plants in Tokyo and four other Japanese cities was the aircraft carrier Hornet, later lost in the Pacific battle of Santa Cruz, October 26.

That the idea of the spectacular attack—a first installment on Pearl Harbor debt—was conceived in January, 1942, presumably by Doolittle, and intense training in utmost secrecy preceded its execution on April 18.

That the bombers took off from the Hornet in rough weather 800 miles from the coast of Japan and attacked at noon, whereas the original plan had called for them to take off only 400 miles offshore and to go in at night.

Bucked Storm

That not one of the planes reached the Chinese landing fields to which all had been supposed to go; the additional 400 mile flight to the island and a storm encountered after leaving it drained away their gasoline reserves, forcing them to crash—all except the one that reached Russia.

That of the 80 officers and men on the flight, one was killed, two are missing, eight are prisoners or presumed to be prisoners of Japan, five are interned in Russia and 64, including seven who were injured, got home through China.

Some of the story of the raid had been told before by Doolittle and his men; the great disclosure in the Army's release last night was that the big B-25 bombers had started their operation from the pitching deck of an aircraft carrier.

The secret was kept as long as possible, the statement said, and the Japanese, not being sure of the attack's source—whether China, or the Aleutians or an aircraft carrier—were forced to tie up part of their military strength during crucial months.

Predict More Attacks

Then the department added: "If the secret could always have been kept from the Japanese—which in the end was impossible—it would naturally have added to the tension which Japan awaits the attacks that still lie ahead."

Identification of "Shangri-La" as the carrier Hornet automatically unfolded incidents of courage and heroism heretofore hidden by the secrecy policy. Foremost among these was the dramatic decision by Doolittle and his men to risk the action despite a drastic change in plans.

This decision was forced by the fact that as the naval task force, organized around the Hornet, approached Japan it was sighted by an enemy patrol ship. Skipped by Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., now supreme commander in the south Pacific, the task force had already avoided one Japanese vessel and was trying to avoid another when it was seen by the third.

Sink Jap Ship

That ship was quickly sunk but it was feared that it might have radioed a warning to Tokyo—a fear which later was

BUSY WEEK-END AT COLLEGE; TO GRADUATE 106

Gettysburg college prepared today for a week-end of intense activities marking the completion of the 111th year of its history. Scheduled for Saturday is Alumni day, including annual meetings of the alumni groups; Sunday, the annual baccalaureate address will be delivered and the commencement exercises marking the graduation of 106 seniors will take place Monday.

The occasion will also mark the completion by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson of his twentieth year as seventh president of the college, the longest term ever served by any president in the history of the institution.

Representative James W. Fulbright, of the third congressional district of Arkansas will be the principal speaker at the commencement. He is a member of the foreign affairs committee of the House and a former president of Arkansas university. Besides presentation of prizes and diplomas, another feature of the commencement to be held at the Majestic theatre will be the presentation of commissions as second lieutenants to senior ROTC cadets by Col. Edward C. Oliver, commandant of the local ROTC.

First Easter Baccalaureate

Dr. Charles B. Foelsch, president of the Lutheran Theological seminary at Maywood, Illinois, will deliver the annual baccalaureate address on Sunday at the Majestic theatre at 4 p. m. Doctor Foelsch is the father of one of the members of the graduating class, Carolyn B. Foelsch. He is author of "The Day's Worship" and a member of the executive board of the United Lutheran Church.

Nelson P. Arigo will act as chairman at the affair Sunday which will include, weather permitting, an academic procession of the speaker, Doctor Hanson, members of the senior class and faculty from Glatfelter hall to the theatre. The baccalaureate is the first in the history of the college to be held on Easter Sunday.

College Progress

Doctor Hanson will deliver his annual address to the alumni at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, at Weidensall hall. Class gift presentations, and the annual reunion dinners are also scheduled for Saturday. The alumni collation will not be held.

No special program has been arranged to celebrate Doctor Hanson's twentieth anniversary as president. He came here from Messiah Lutheran church, Harrisburg, where he was pastor for some time. Since coming here he has secured an "A" rating for the college among accrediting agencies. The first year the college won that honor was in 1924. He established the offices of dean of men and dean of women. Under his administration the Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium, the library and the memorial athletic field were built and a number of other improvements were made including the remodeling of Glatfelter hall at a cost of $128,000. The women's campus was added and plans were launched for a new chapel. The plans were postponed until victory after hostilities began.

Schools Receive Overdue Money

Adams county's school districts received today the 18 per cent of the state transportation allotment still owing on the school year 1941-42, County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh said.

A letter from Dr. Francis B. Haas, state superintendent of Public Instruction, sent to Slaybaugh said that the 19 per cent still owed by the state on allocations for February, March and April for teachers' salaries in closed schools would be sent the school districts about May 1.

Here's A Marine Who Made Good His Promise To Dad

Media, Pa., April 21 (AP)—When Jack Sugarman told the family he'd have to join up, now that the United States was at war, his father said, "Well, if you've got to go, see that you send me half a dozen dead Japs."

The boy—the first bristle was sprouting on his chin last time his folks heard from him—did better than that. A Navy Cross is coming because Jack killed 132 Japs on Guadalcanal.

"He said he'd do it and by golly he did," his father, Alex, grinned behind the counter of his grocery store. His mother, no less proud, added, "I knew a long time ago that he would not rest until he was in it, and I dreaded the day."

It was Jack's high school football rival, Buddy Gallagher, who sent back the news of the Delaware county youth's exploit. Jack played for Media, Buddy for Chester. They're on the same Marine team now, somewhere in Australia.

The neighbors are as excited as the Sugarmans, but no more surprised. They tell how Jack wouldn't be kept off the fire truck, riding to fires in his pajamas as a child; how he was making good in the National Guard until someone discovered he was only 16; how he scared the daylight out of the cattle, riding bareback on Martin's farm.

"It was just 13 months ago that Jack enlisted," his father mused, "and already he's got 132 of them. To think I bawled him out for breaking the garage windows with his BB gun!"

AFS Men Give Watch To Huber

Charles H. Huber, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Huber, Carlisle street, was presented with a Swiss wrist watch by the men in his American Field Service unit "somewhere in Africa" with an accompanying tribute. The tribute follows:

"At all times he set a high example to the rest of the Unit. He is straight forward, open minded and of excellent judgment. Despite any difficulties with which he was faced, sound judgment, even temper and cheerfulness were always retained. He is regarded by one and all with manly affection. Although he was faced with an enormously difficult task, considering the size and nature of the Unit, he welded an esprit de corps which we believe no other man in the Unit could have accomplished. Time and again he performed for the Unit and the A.F.S. actions which were far above the national realm of his duties. He was a friend to and personally aided every man in the Unit. He is absolutely qualified to lead any number of men."

Three months after Huber's unit left the States it landed in Africa. One thousand men, upon reaching land, stood and sang the song of Thanksgiving for safety at sea.

After reaching Africa Huber turned his contingent over to British Headquarters of the American Field Service, was given command of a new group to take into another sector.

Veteran Desert Troops Drive Foe From Strong Base

By WES GALLAGHER

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, April 21 (AP)—Dashing veterans of the Eighth army have captured Enfidaville, Axis coastal anchor 50 miles south of Tunis, in the first hours of an offensive to crack the enemy's Tunisian corner and have hurled back four counter-assaults in some of the fiercest fighting since the Nazis were thrown out of Egypt, the Allies announced today.

Accompanying Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's drive from the south, which was opened at 11 o'clock Monday night with a mighty barrage from hundreds of guns, the British First army has moved forward slightly in the Medjez-El Bab sector west of Tunis, said a communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters.

Heaviest Air Bombardments

The newest assaults, aimed at collapsing the mountain rim held by Marshal Erwin Rommel and Col. Gen. Jurgen Von Arnim, were meshed with the northwest African air force's heaviest bombardments of Axis airfields the campaign has seen and by violent air battles in which 27 enemy aircraft were shot down yesterday.

Along with other planes shot down on previous days but not previously reported here, this score brought to 151 the total of enemy planes destroyed in the last three days.

"Enfidaville has been occupied and all initial objectives captured after fierce fighting," the communique said. "Four enemy counterattacks have been repulsed. Fighting continues."

The objectives were the Takrouna heights west and northwest of Enfidaville and about 46 miles south of Tunis, and the 1,200-foot Djebel Garci, which commands the plains region about 12 miles west of Enfidaville.

Three-Mile Advance

The infantry moved out in the moonlight Monday after an intensive artillery barrage—Gen. Montgomery's usual prelude to an offensive.

The advance into the heights northwest of Enfidaville marked a three-mile push across terrain showered with shells from Axis artillery and mortar guns.

Noland Norgaard, Associated Press war correspondent was with the Eighth army when Montgomery touched off the drive in characteristic fashion with a mighty chorus of artillery.

The infantry began to move at 11 p. m. Monday in the full glare of moonlight shining from a cloudless sky, and three hours later they had crossed 1,200 yards of flat and barren wasteland, forged through the olive groves on the Takrouna foothills, and won their way to the heights between Enfidaville and Takrouna, their first objective.

Here German and Italian guns had commanded the entire coastal avenue north.

Tough Going Lies Ahead

While these forces stormed the Takrouna hills, another arm on the left flank smashed up Djebel Garci to its 1,200 foot peak, Norgaard reported in a dispatch from the front.

In the 40-mile path to Tunis even higher ridges stand in the way of Montgomery's men and all of these are believed to be heavily fortified. Official caution was expressed that the advance from now on will be slow and bitterly-fought, and that a quick, easy march was not to be expected.

$6,000 In Bonds Credited Here

The Adams county Second War Loan drive has received credit for $6,000 in Series "G" bonds recently purchased by corporations with branches operating in Gettysburg and the county, it was announced today.

The Gettysburg Gas Corporation office at Pittsburgh made known today the fact that $5,000 in bonds have been purchased and credited to Adams county.

The G. C. Murphy company has followed a similar course and has credited $1,000 in bonds, purchased during the current campaign, to the drive to fill the $2,318,000 quota in this county.

FOR LOCAL WORK

A $2 donation from the Gardners Salvage committee was announced today by the county Red Cross. The sum will not be added to the War Fund, it was stated, but will be earmarked for use by the local chapter at the request of the committee.

New Spring Suits, Coats and Millinery, Smart Shoppe, "The Little Shop On Carle Street."

PHONE COMPANY HOST AT PARTY

Seventy-eight present and former employees of the United Telephone company in Gettysburg, Biglerville and Fairfield areas attended a rally at the Hotel Gettysburg, Tuesday evening, which followed an afternoon conference between general office representatives and district department heads.

L. R. Thurston, president of the company, in a prepared address told the employees they are making "front line contributions to the war effort" by speeding communication service. He praised the record of the Gettysburg district and said incidental service complaints have been at a minimum in spite of the fact the exchanges are "handling the heaviest traffic in the history of the company."

Movies Are Shown

C. A. Bixler, Hanover-Gettysburg district manager, presided during the evening. Several war action films were shown and then a reel, made of Gettysburg district employees in 1931 when they won a company

BRITISH BLAST BALIC PORTS, BERLIN, RAILS AND SHIPPING

London, April 21 (AP)—Heavy British bombers attacked the German Baltic ports of Stettin and Rostock last night while speedy Mosquito bombers pounded Berlin in widespread raids from which 31 planes are missing, the Air Ministry announced today.

The night's operations also included mine-laying in enemy waters and sharp attacks by fighters and fighter-bombers on enemy railroads, barges and coastal shipping, a communiqué said.

The operations were favored by good weather and the bombing attacks on Stettin and Rostock—which were carried out by some of the RAF's mightiest planes—were well concentrated, the Air Ministry said.

Rostock is the site of the Heinkel and Meptune works and the community said the port and the Heinkel works were the specific targets in last night's raid.

Blast Other Areas

While the heavy bombers were out against the Baltic ports and Berlin last night—the eighth night in a row that the RAF has attacked the German-dominated continent—other planes hit hard at German rail and water communications in France, Holland, Belgium and northwestern Germany, and attacked shipping off the Belgian coast.

The Air Ministry news service described the forays against the Axis transport as among the biggest such attacks of the war.

Heavy explosions from the French channel coast, heard in the Dover-Folkestone area after dawn today, indicated that the Allied attacks were continuing by daylight.

All in all, the RAF gave Adolf Hitler a party on the night of his 54th birthday that he can well remember.

Berlin's raid was its 61st. It was much lighter than the attacks on the Baltic ports and not comparable with the three heavy raids on the capital in March.

It was announced in Stockholm that a British bomber fell burning into the sea off Klagshamn and that the crew parachuted to safety in Sweden. One of the men was injured.

Afternoon Assault

Swedish anti-aircraft guns were in action last night in southern Sweden when foreign planes flew over, but a Swedish communiqué said the British bomber had not been shot down.

The night's raids followed late afternoon forays by Ventura bombers against the docks at Cherbourg, railway targets at Boulogne and a factory at Zebruge, Belgium, without the loss of a plane. The Germans hit back quickly with a night retaliation raid in which they dropped bombs on two London districts.

A heavy anti-aircraft barrage forced the enemy planes to twist and dodge over the city and the ack-ack killed at least one person and injured several others. A bomb in one district damaged houses and injured some people.

Some slight enemy plane activity over the southwest coast area was reported.

County Soldier In German Prison

Pvt. Paul Louis Kuhn, 34, New Oxford, reported early in March as "missing in action" in Africa since February 17, now is believed to be a German prisoner.

The soldier's mother, Mrs. Clara Kuhn, High street, New Oxford, was said today at New Oxford to have received a telephone message Tuesday night from Pittsburgh stating that her son is "safe and in a German prison camp." The informant promised more details in a letter.

Kuhn was among the first youths from this county to be inducted into the armed forces. He joined the Army nearly two years ago and after a basic training period in this county was sent to Ireland and later to Africa.

Two Local Students Join Honor Society

Twenty-two Gettysburg college seniors have been named to the Honor Society for 1943. It has been announced by Dean W. E. Tilberg. Among those so honored were George Thomas Miller and Miss Helen Saby, both of Gettysburg.

The Honor society was founded in 1934 to recognize "outstanding ability" in the student body. Seniors who have at least a "B" average or better and have taken part in a large number of activities at the school are admitted to the group. Members of the faculty automatically become members after serving ten years at the college, Dean Tilberg said.

Survivors Of Torpedoing Rescued

Numb with cold after days of exposure in the rough waters of the north Atlantic after their ship was torpedoed by a German U-boat, these survivors, some of the 16 that crowded on one life raft, scramble for the life lines thrown from a U.S. Coast Guard cutter that rescued them. The 16 rescued seamen were all treated for exposure and shock when taken aboard the cutter. (Associated Press Photo from U.S. Coast Guard.)

ANPA OPPOSES SUBSIDIZATION OF ADVERTISING

New York, April 21 (AP)—Walter M. Dear, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' association and co-publisher of the Jersey City (N.J.) Jersey Journal, declared today that the ANPA believes government-financed advertising "snacks of subsidy" and would be "disastrous" to newspapers.

In his annual address prepared for delivery before the convention, Dear said:

"Some newspaper groups have publicly acclaimed approval of the idea and through over-enthusiasm or because of economic pressure have expressed advocacy on the ground that such expenditure, particularly in the case of the small newspapers, would serve as a stop-gap for the economic depression which endangers the continuation of such publications.

Disastrous Program

"While we have the deepest sympathy for any of our fellow publishers who may find the going difficult, and realize the value and importance of the weekly press, we cannot subscribe to the wisdom of accepting a subsidy. Such a program would prove disastrous.

"Under such circumstances, no longer could the American newspaper maintain its claim of a free and independent press."

Referring to a bill to be introduced in Congress which would authorize the appropriation of $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 for advertising of Treasury Bonds sales, the appropriation to be divided equally between daily and weekly newspapers, Dear said:

"This provision snacks of subsidy." The ANPA, he said, admits that the basic principle of advertising "is just as applicable and will be equally as effective" for the government as for private enterprise, but added:

"Government advertising must be safeguarded from political influence and directed by independent advertising experts who have demonstrated their ability and the confidence in which they are held by the newspapers.

May Cut Paper

"This confidence has been built up by the honorable and business-like handling of the trust imposed in the expenditure of private funds. There would be no reason to believe that these gentlemen would be any less scrupulous in the proper handling of government monies."

He said the idea might sound "utopian, but in our judgment it is the only fundamentally sound basis on which government advertising can operate."

Dear declared that there may be a demand for a further cut in newspaper, adding, "I warn you that it will be followed shortly by a demand for a further increase in price. Neither will be quietly accepted in the absence of impressive factual data."

BOOST VALUE OF FOOD UNITS

Washington, April 21 (AP)—Blue ration coupons will buy about twice as much frozen fruits and vegetables and canned and dehydrated soups starting tomorrow. Dry black-eyed peas will be ration-free.

A slash in the point values of these goods was announced by the Office of Price Administration to prevent warm-weather spoilage and relieve a clogging of storage space resulting from slow sales. The one-pound size of frozen fruit was cut from 13 to 6 points, one-pound package of frozen baked beans from 8 to 4 points, and the customary 12 ounce size of other frozen vegetables from a 6-10 point range to flat rate of 4 points.

Less for Soups

The customary 10½ ounce can of tomato soup was cut from 6 to 3 points and other canned soups from 6 to 4 points. For dry or dehydrated soups, the new values are only a fourth of what they started out to be when processed food rationing began March 1. The points were cut in half March 29, and again approximately in half, effective tomorrow. The 2½ ounce package will take a single point.

Distribution of War Ration book No. 3—to be used as a replacement for books No. 1 and 2—will be by mail instead of school house registration, Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown announced yesterday in urging the public to "step hard" on any rumors that the book might be used for any new rationing.

Application blanks are to be left in mail boxes between May 20 and June 5 and mailing of the new books is expected to be completed by the end of July.

SCOUT MEETING

Members of the Black Walnut district Boy Scout committee will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Gettysburg to discuss plans for spring and summer scouting.

TO CLOSE FRIDAY

The Red Cross production center on East Middle street, will be open Thursday, but will be closed Good Friday, it was announced today.

ACTION FLARES ALONG RUSSIAN BATTLE FRONTS

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, April 21 (AP)—A violent struggle for an important height marked the mounting battle in the Kuban delta above Novorossisk today as the Germans threw in more troops in an attempt to regain lost positions, but nowhere did they succeed in gaining any ground, the Russians reported today.

A dispatch to Red Star, the Army newspaper, said that artillery action has increased and there are more and more bombings by the German air force operating in strength from the waters of the Black sea northward to the Sea of Azov.

Both the communiqué and dispatches have alluded to water fighting, which may be on either the Black sea or the Sea of Azov. Two German torpedo boats were sunk in the latest battle.

Russian Gains

It was too early in the developing battle to decide here if the Germans were attempting a new spring offensive.

On the other fronts there was heavy artillery duelling along the Donets north of Chuguev, in the Sevsk district, and on the Volkov front southeast of Leningrad.

The midday communiqué was silent on activity about Kalinin, northwest of Moscow, where the midnight war bulletin told of Russian forces going into the offensive and capturing an important height, holding it against repeated counterattacks.

Ferry Service Aids War Workers

Pittsburgh, April 21 (AP)—To speed travel of workers to the new synthetic rubber plant at Kobuta, and to save mileage, the Koppers company, contractors, has established a ferry service across the Ohio river.

The plant is the largest in the government's program for making butadiene and styrene, chief chemical ingredients of synthetic rubber. Koppers is building it for the government and will operate it under lease.

A ferry launch, the "Rose," with a capacity of 24 passengers, will operate across the river throughout the day and during peak hours, a stern-wheel Diesel electric motor vessel, the "Duke," will push a converted barge holding more than 100 em-

Predict Passage Of Parole "Ripper"

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—The Republican Senate leadership today predicted quick action on a bill to "rip out" the five-member parole board but keep civil service provisions and limit jurisdiction of county courts to prisoners sentenced two years and less.

Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, majority floor leader, declared the measure "will be passed as soon as possible" and added:

"We're going to cut jurisdiction of county judges back to prisoners sentenced to two years and put civil service back in."

Official estimate the ferry system will save workers as much as 15 miles of driving daily.

Senators Beat Athletics To Open Baseball Season; All Clubs Play Today

WASHINGTON TAKES LEAD IN AMERICAN

By HUDSON BAILEY
(By The Associated Press)

Spring is here! All the people who have been doubting it for various reasons, especially the weather, had to be convinced today because the baseball season is now open.

The Washington Senators subdued the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-5, yesterday in the nation's capital and took over first place in the American league for at least one day, leaving it up to the other major league clubs to do as well in their openers today.

The formal bow for the National and American leagues as a whole called for this program:

Today's Schedule
National—St. Louis at Cincinnati, New York at Brooklyn, Pittsburgh at Chicago and Philadelphia at Boston.

American—Washington at New York, Boston at Philadelphia, Detroit at Cleveland and Chicago at St. Louis.

In winning the inaugural in Griffith Stadium the Senators confirmed the suspicions of many observers that play this season would be more slowly, that the ball is "more dead," that crowds in midweek will be smaller and that Washington is improved over last year.

The turnout for the inaugural was the smallest in many years at Washington, 25,093, and the game itself was a stumbling affair with the Senators making three errors and the Athletics calling on four hurlers.

The game's longest hit was a two-bagger, but the Senators managed to push across six runs in a big sixth-inning rally.

Cards Vs. Reds
Today the Senators had to risk their prestige against the New York Yankees, last year's pennant winners, before a crowd of 30,000 at Yankee Stadium. Before the game started Wilt Harridge, president of the league, was to officiate at the raising of the Yankees' 1942 pennant.

The day's principal spectacle, however, was to be the world champion Cardinals' invasion of Cincinnati with Mort Cooper slated to oppose Lefty Johnny Vander Meer on the mound before a capacity turnout of 30,000 at Crosley Field.

The biggest turnout of the day appeared to be in prospect at Cleveland for the Indians' opener with the Detroit Tigers. Jim Bagby of the Tribe was to oppose the veteran Tommy Bridges and a crowd of 35,000 was expected.

Another turnout of around 25,000 was looked for at Ebbets Field in Brooklyn as the Dodgers opened their festivities with the New York Giants.

2-Mile Record At Stake In Relays

Philadelphia, April 21 (AP)—The Franklin Field two-mile record which Fred Wilt hung up in 1941 goes on the block Friday with Wilt, former Indiana runner now training for a commission at the Navy's New York Midshipmen's School, on hand to defend it at the 49th annual Penn Relays.

Matched with Wilt in the effort to knock down the 9:17.6 mark are 28 runners including Glenn Masten, Colgate; Don Burnham, Dartmouth; Robert Hume and Ernest Lombardi, Michigan; Ollie Hunter, Notre Dame; Richard Phillips, Tufts; and Curt Stone, Penn State.

Gregory Rice, world indoor record holder for the distance, heads a small list of entries in another two-mile race Saturday afternoon.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)
Hartford, Conn.—Phil Terranova, 123, New York, outpointed Angelo Callura, 130, Hamilton, Ont. (10).
Jersey City—Sonny Horne, 156, Niles, Ohio, outpointed Roy Rovelli, 152, New York (10).

Buffalo—Walter Kolby, 136, Bland, N. Y., outpointed Amanda Sicilia, 130½, New York (6).

New York—Joe Carter, 156, Rome, N. Y., outpointed Jackie Cooper, 151, Chicago (8).

Los Angeles—Luther "Sluggo" White, 133½, Baltimore, outpointed John Thomas, 135, Los Angeles (10).

SWARTHMORE WINS

Swarthmore, Pa., April 21 (AP)—Swarthmore college nosed out Pennsylvania Military college, 64-62, yesterday although the losers' captain, Jack Pancourt, won two hurdle events and the 100-yard dash, took second in the 220 and third in the broad jump.

GRID OWNER NOW OFFICER

Camp Davis, S. C., April 21 (AP)—Lieut. Alexis Thompson, owner of the Philadelphia Eagles football club, who joined the Army as a private last October, was graduated today from the Officers Candidate School here.

Landis Has Short Trip To Opener

Chicago, April 21 (AP)—Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, adhering strictly to wartime travel limitations, will venture little more than three miles today to watch the launching of the 1943 major league baseball season.

He will attend the Chicago Cubs-Pittsburgh Pirates game at Wrigley field. Landis' apartment is in the 1300 block north; Wrigley field is 3600 north.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 21 (AP)—Lew Fonseca has whittled out a series of instructive sequences from the various American league films shot since 1934 and will take them on a month's tour of Army camps to show Uncle Sam's soldiers the right way to play baseball. . . . Eventually he hopes to build up a "technical instruction library," which the league will lend to high school, college and service coaches. . . . The quarterly NBA boxers' rankings will be out next week. No doubt they'll give Tony Galento's comeback the recognition it deserves.

564 ANSWER

When Fred Corcoran, former Professional Golfers' Association tournament manager now working for the Red Cross in England, put on one of his popular sports quizzes recently, he asked: "What golfer made the grand slam?"

The answer came from a negro soldier: "Sam Snead. I was caddy for him in Atlanta when he bust a drive 350 yards. What a grand slam!"

SPORTSMENTION

Dick Wakefield, who collected $51,000 for signing with the Tigers a couple of years ago, failed to pass his economics course at Michigan last fall—which shows the weakness of our educational system. . . . While awaiting his Navy call, the Chicago Bears' Bill Osmanski started making pep talks at war plants and his sports anecdotes, plugs for recreation programs and yarns about his football buddies overseas got such a swell reception that he's going to devote all his time to talking (Free ad: Bill has some dates open). . . . When Judy Johnson, who has just received a Maryland jockey's license, rides her first race, says the Baltimore EveSun's Bill Boniface, it will be the first time known when a woman's weight will be announced publicly.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Will Connolly, San Francisco Chronicle: "Beau Jack, Georgia shoe shine boy and world's lightweight champ in New York, has been deferred in the draft because he can neither read nor write. He has only about $95,000 in the bank in trust. For that we could forget the alphabet."

SERVICE DEPT.

Gen. Claire (Flying Tigers) Chennault isn't the only softball pitcher who can wear stars on his shoulders. Brig. Gen. Wolcott P. Hayes, commander at Scott Field, Illinois, recently fanned 18 batters in a camp softball game. . . . Lieut. Raymond E. Gadsby, head boxing coach at the Iowa Navy Pre-Flight school, competed in the 1928 Olympic boxing team and four years later was trainer of an American soccer team that toured Italy. . . . Another high-powered service baseball team is reported from the Harlingen, Texas, Army Gunners school. The squad includes Lieut. C. B. "Babe" Caldwell, Corp. Bill Lacy and Pvt. Bob Prichard, who have had major league experience; Lieut. John Clements, former Southern Methodist university athlete, and a couple of ex-minor leaguers. . . . Chicago's strong Navy Pier track team will miss the Drake relays this week-end because of a ban on overnight trips.

Hughson, Flores To Hurl Today

Philadelphia, April 21 (AP)—The Athletics, still smarting under their 7-5 opening day drubbing at the hands of Washington, gave Jess Flores the mound assignment for their first home game today against Boston.

Tex Hughson was scheduled to pitch for Boston.

Less than 10,000 persons were expected to see the game, with Mayor Bernard Samuel tossing out the first ball.

DODGERS OPTION TWO

Brooklyn, April 21 (AP)—Luis Olmo, Puerto Rican outfielder who played with Richmond last year, and Bob Chipman, left-handed pitcher with Montreal, and briefly, with Brooklyn, today were sent on option to the Montreal club by the Brooklyn Dodgers.

You can't lose if you invest in the Second War Loan drive, but you will lose if you don't save for tough sledding after the war.

BULLETS WILL ATTEMPT CAGE, GRID PROGRAM

Gettysburg college will attempt to play football and basketball schedules in 1943-44 but on a somewhat curtailed basis it has been announced by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, college president, following a meeting of the board of trustees in Wilmington, Delaware, last week.

No games will be definitely scheduled until after the first week of school in September and then only schools on a similar basis as Gettysburg will be met.

Inasmuch as the Army does not allow its cadets to participate in intercollegiate athletics while the Navy does, the Bullets will not engage colleges with Naval cadets on their campus.

Old opponents of the Bullets who face the same situation as Gettysburg include Delaware, Drexel and Western Maryland. It is likely that other colleges with similar setups will also be scheduled.

Three old-time rivals, Muhlenberg, Lehigh and P and M, have been taken over by the Navy and consequently will not be met.

The board of trustees definitely decided to continue fall sports and probably basketball if the enrollment warrants it.

7 Derby Entries Try Track Today

Louisville, Ky., April 21 (AP)—Seven current "certain starters" in the Kentucky Derby will test the Churchill Downs track today in the blue grass stakes, feature of the closing card of Keeneland's transplanted 10-day meeting here.

Picked as the leading contenders in the important preview were the two "winter derby" winners—Dixiana farm's Amber Light and J. Graham Brown's Seven Hearts, who scampered in first in the Louisiana and Arkansas features, respectively.

Favored by some of the faithful was Calumet farm's Ocean Wave, who finished second in both those events. Valinda farm's Valinda Sol, J. W. Rodgers' Dove Pie, Hal Price Headley's Crest and Greentree stable's Noonday Sun round out the field. The last three will carry 121 pounds, two pounds less than the other four.

Cubs and Pirates Ready For Opener

Chicago, April 21 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates each will present slightly altered lineups today when they open the National league baseball season at Wrigley field, but the alterations will not stop with personnel in the case of the Cubs. They've gone back to Orthodox uniforms after several seasons of wearing a "vestee" design.

The veteran Paul Derringer, one of three newcomers in the Cub starting lineup, will pitch for Chicago and will be opposed by Truett (Rip) Sewell, who beat the Cubs four times last season.

A crowd of around 12,000 was anticipated for the game which starts at 3 p. m. (CWT).

PUNCH HITLER WITH BONDS

Philadelphia, April 21 (AP)—A rubber effigy of Adolf Hitler brings out a pugilistic instinct in this city of brotherly love. Citizens paid $50,000 in war bonds yesterday to punch the touring figure, bringing the city's total in the second war loan drive to $309,606,400 out of its $400,000,000 goal.

"No Progress" At Mine Wage Parley

New York, April 21 (AP)—Spokesmen for Pennsylvania's anthracite coal operators and the United Mine Workers report that no progress has been made on the union's wage demands for "continuous shift" employees.

They made this announcement yesterday at the conclusion of a contract negotiation session attended by John L. Lewis, UMW president. Lewis said his visit had "no significance" and that he planned "to drop in * * * from time to time."

The conferees resumed negotiations at 1:30 p. m. today.

Fish Commission Changes Doubtful

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—Legislation to revamp the Fish commission setup probably will not reach the Senate floor for action at this session of the general assembly.

Chairman Montgomery F. Crowe (R-Monroe) of the Senate Fish and Game committee, today asserted "I think it will stay in committee. I haven't heard of any support and I understand it was introduced by mistake."

The measure was offered by Senator John M. Walker (R-Allegheny) and provided that the Board of Fish Commissioners name its executive director. The commissioner of fisheries now is appointed by the Governor and also is president of the board and executive director.

Here's Man Who Thrives On Raw Food; No Ration Book

By FRANKLIN BAKER

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 21 (AP)—Meet Nick Stack, the man the OPA would like to shake hands with. He doesn't own a ration book.

While many of his fellow citizens worried themselves into headaches over coupons for sugar, coffee, canned goods and meat, Stack pursues his unrationed, unhurried way, explaining:

"I don't need those things—for that matter other people don't, either—so I didn't apply for ration books. I never thought of it."

Commented A. J. Williams, Pittsburgh district OPA manager:

"It's amazing to hear there is such a person. I wish there were more like him."

Stack, who lives in a city of brawny steel workers who demand big steaks and potatoes, thrives on natural foods like raw oats and honey.

For seven years he hasn't eaten meat, bread or butter, coffee, tea or cocoa, much less candy, cake or ice cream.

A barrel-chested Y. M. C. A. physical instructor who at 36 thinks nothing of lifting 1,000 pounds, he lives on two pounds daily of whole grain oats or wheat, honey, nuts, berries, fresh vegetables and fruits. To conserve the vitamins, he eats them all uncooked, merely warming the grains.

"And I have to be careful," he says. "A couple ounces over and I get fat."

As for shoes, he has enough and wears gym shoes mostly anyway.

Gasoline? He lifts his car up and is giving it away.

WAR HERO AIDS BOND SALES

New Castle, Pa., April 21 (AP)—

Employees of the Shenango Pottery company, taking over the sale of war bonds in their plant yesterday have a "round-the-world" war hero as their guest—Staff Sergeant Edwin Carlsen of Seattle, Wash.

The sergeant was wounded on Bataan peninsula three days before it fell to the Japanese but was evacuated to Australia. After recovering he was sent to the Solomon Islands in time to have another brush with the Japs.

Returning to the United States, he trained in the amphibian forces and was with the advanced reconnaissance patrol of the Field Artillery at Fedala, 16 miles from Casablanca.

Wounded in north Africa, Carlsen was placed aboard a hospital ship which was torpedoed, but the vessel returned to port and he was shipped back on another vessel.

Last week the sergeant married Laura Flowers of Sharpsburg. He is stationed at the Shenango Replacement Depot, Transfer, Pa.

An Evening Thought

We must distinguish between speaking to deceive and being silent to be reserved.—Voltaire.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guesi

TRUSTED

How uncomplainingly they write!

The boys in every battle zone,

No word the mother to affright,

No phrase in a resentful tone;

No hint they ever doubt that we

Are not as brave as we should be!

Their letters come from far away

And all the censor has to blur

Are facts they're not allowed to say

Least something tragic should occur.

They're sure, however hard the test,

That we are living to our best.

They show no doubt of us at all,

No fear that we shall them betray.

Or into selfishness shall fall

While they are serving far away.

Not one of our fighting hosts

Imagines we shall leave our posts!

As we believe in them, so they Wholeheartedly in us believe.

They're sure we're working night

And day,

That all they need they shall Receive,

And oh, what heartaches would

Assail them

If for one minute we should fail

Them!

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

A CERTAIN IMPRISONMENT

No matter how free we may think

We are, each of us, to a greater or less extent, actually imprisoned.

We willingly house ourselves within the law, we fence ourselves in from giving hurt or hindrance to those about us, and we imprison many of our thoughts that—should they get out—might bring unhappiness somewhere.

It is not an unhappy imprisonment. To have consideration for the feelings of others doubles back as a protection to us. We are not alone in this world. We are self-dependent and inter-dependent. To live in a pleasant and happy social state we must become a part of the loom of society.

The freedom of speech, of religion, of action within the bounds of a decent social order, and of thought, are all a part of our priceless heritage. Nothing can imprison our thoughts, and that is why we should use care that they do not imprison the thoughts of anyone else. We are free to drink in beauty where-ever it appears. I fear that many of us do not appreciate the great freedom that we enjoy—and rather imprison ourselves behind walls of selfishness, and disregard for the welfare of others.

Many of the world's greatest books were composed and written behind actual prison walls—but that did not imprison the mind nor the soul.

"Don Quixote," "Pilgrim's Progress,"

"De Profundis," many of the O.

Henry stories, and others too numerous to mention, found immortality in darkness within locked cells.

The world also owes more than it can ever repay for the beauty and the helpfulness that have streamed from the hearts of shut-ins, hospital beds, and from those imprisoned in darkness because of blindness. I never listen to the humor and gaiety of that blind singer and musician,

Alec Templeton, without being inspired by his wonderful gifts to mankind. And what a blessing to the world Helen Keller has been!

Imprisoned ones, but who broke all barriers and sought the sunlight of hope—spreading it to the four corners of the earth.

Freedom, to a large extent, is something that we decide upon as something that belongs to us, and which we gain through self-effort.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Genius."

The Second War Loan drive is for $43,000,000,000. That means $100 from every resident of the United States.

DOUBLE OBJECT IN HURRY-WORRY TRIPS BY HITLER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Hitler's hurry-worry conferences with heads of states under his domination have brought him to the puppet Norwegian premier, Vidkun Quisling, whose name smells wherever there are loyal noses.

These parleys have been regarded generally as politico-military in nature and designed to serve a double purpose: (1) to advertise the creation of a "new order" for the European continent, which would offset the Allied aims promulgated at the Casablanca conference and at the same time would (2) act as a bribe to obtain greater military assistance for the Reich at this critical juncture.

The quixotic confab is the fifth in line and it's interesting to note that all of them have concerned areas which not only are hot invasion prospects but are among the weakest links in Hitler's defensive chain. The previous talks have been with Mussolini, King Boris of Bulgaria, Dictator Ion Antonescu of Rumania and Regent Nicholas Horthy of Hungary. Greece is said to be next in order.

Tightening Defenses
Now all these countries are in the doubtful class on the Nazi dictator's list. Italy is shaking like a bowl of custard. There's bitter territorial rivalry among Rumania, Hungary and Bulgaria, and on top of that both Hungary and Rumania are fed up with the heavy casualties suffered by their troops on the Russian front. Norway, of course, is being kept in order solely by force of arms.

All in all it would seem that the worried Fuehrer is concerned very little with a "new order" and very much with tightening up his defenses against invasion. His task isn't an easy one because there are many possible invasion-points and he must guard every one of them, from Norway clear round southern Europe to the Balkans.

"Nazi Oxygen Tank"
So far as concerns France, Belgium, Holland and Denmark, Hitler likely feels that his preparations are as good as he can make them. The Berlin radio has been bragging about the 1,625 miles of fortifications which the Nazis claim guard the Atlantic coast—and very likely do, to a greater or less degree. It would be foolish to underestimate the strength of this "great wall of China" which the Boche has erected along the sea. Hitler's other fronts, however, are his headache. Norway wouldn't listen to any "new order" and only awaits a chance to hang the German oppressor. Italy as a whole not only has no use for him but is physically smashed already and is being kept going with a Nazi oxygen tank. The Balkans, which Berlin openly recognizes as a convenient invasion road for the Allies, present a real problem to Berlin.

Cringing Quisling
The Rumanians are bitter over Hitler's award of part of their Transylvanian territory to Hungary, and his bribery of Bulgaria with Rumanian Dobruja. Bulgaria is fearful of the displeasure of Russia and, while King Boris chose to take his country into the Axis fold, many of his people are pro-Russian. Greece and Yugoslavia are being kept in hand by force of arms which the invaders dare not relax and, as already remarked, Rumania and Hungary want their troops withdrawn from the fighting front.

No wonder "our beloved Fuehrer" spent his unhappy birthday laying down the law to a cringing quisling.

Mother Bear, Cubs Given Protection

Kane, Pa., April 21 (AP)—Sportsmen and game protectors have come to the rescue of a mother bear and her triplet cubs, born during the winter hibernation in a forest lair a short distance from a main highway six miles south of here.

After oil lease workers discovered the slumbering mother and her newly-born cubs in a cave-like den formed by fallen trees and brush, many sightseers visited the scene.

The visitors failed to disturb the sleeping bear, but the tiny cubs, their eyes open, were prowling about, often straying some distance from the lair.

When sportsmen learned the sightseers were encroaching on the bear family's privacy by venturing too close to the den, they fenced off an area around it and established a patrol to keep observers at a safe distance.

They explained that it was not so much the safety of the sightseers that prompted the move, but the fact that bears have been known to abandon their cubs when molested.

Man Claims Error Of 748,098 Points

Philadelphia, April 21 (AP)—Ray B. Trainer, operator of a restaurant in Richland township, near Quakertown, was charged by the OPA Tuesday with withholding the declaration of 748,098 points worth of excess food.

Trainer said at a hearing yesterday that he made an error in calculations in his haste to fill out OPA forms.

Americans Recapture Maknassy

Ten of a patrol of 19 United States soldiers, led by Lt. Mervin G. Sneath of Lancaster, Pa., advance cautiously into the town of Maknassy, Tunisia, as they recaptured the town March 23 after the enemy had fled northward.

PLAN CHANGES IN CHILD BILL

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—The House Education committee is expected today to restore an emergency child labor bill to its original aim of permitting school children to work on farms.

Rep. D. Raymond Sollenberger (R-Blair), chairman, said a provision to permit children to be employed as domestic help would be eliminated. The legislation as approved by the Senate would allow such employment of children 14 years of age and older as well as permit them to work on farms in areas suffering manpower shortages.

Sollenberger said other amendments would assure a 180-day school term for children, adding "the changes will make the proposal more operative and will eliminate any chance of charges that children are being exploited."

Predict Approval
Rep. Reuben E. Cohen, Democratic House leader and a member of the committee, said Democrats were in agreement with the majority leadership on the proposed changes and predicted committee approval. Another Republican leader, who declined to be quoted by name, said the changes were "the result of terrific pressure from school groups and have been approved by Governor Martin."

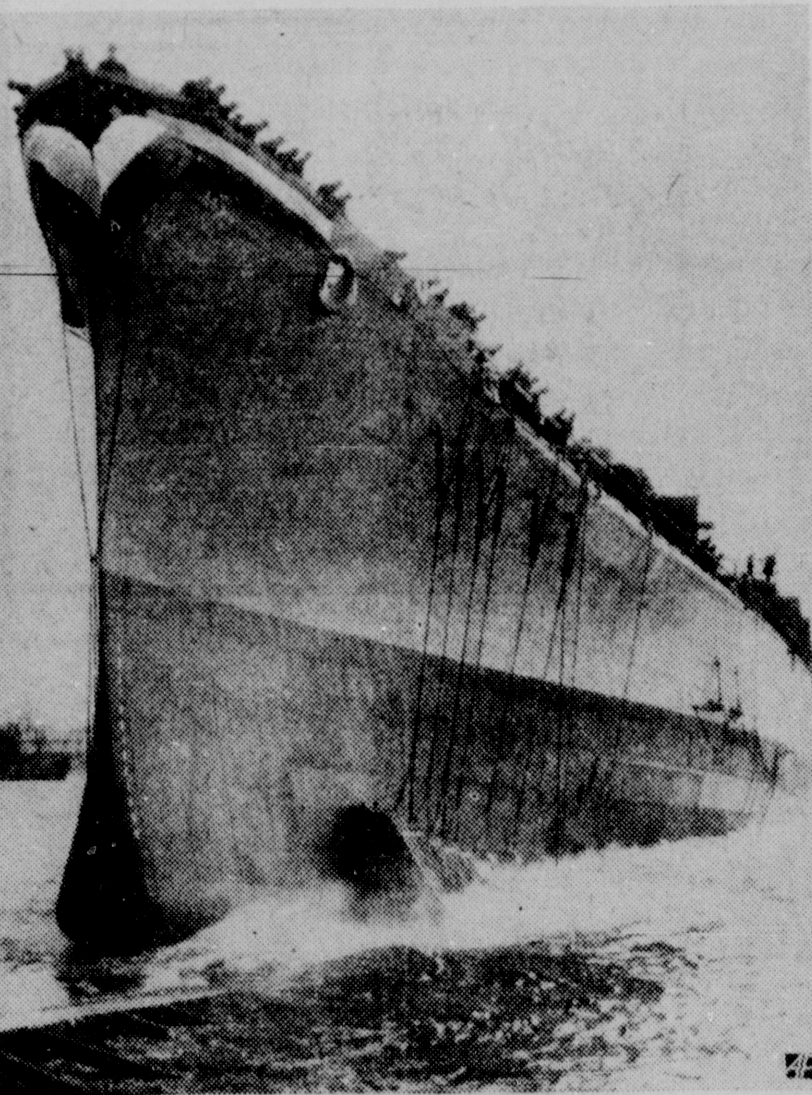

The bill, sponsored by Senator Frederick L. Homsler (R-Lancaster), was endorsed by Dr. Francis B. Haas, state superintendent of public instruction, and opposed by the Pennsylvania Federation of teachers, which claimed it would put the state in the position of favoring child labor without adequate protection.

Soldiers Held In Robbery Probe

Philadelphia, April 21 (AP)—Two soldiers on leave and a civilian companion were held for arraignment Tuesday on robbery charges growing out of the beating of a man who said they stole $41 and a diamond ring from him after he treated them to drinks in a club.

Those arrested were Pvt. Joseph Gorman, 23, and Thomas O'Neill, 22, of Darby; and Harry McGinnis, 22, of Collinsdale. Their accuser was Michael Tucker, 41, of Philadelphia.

Lady Dixon Christens U.S.S. Canberra

Named for an Australian cruiser lost in action off Savo Island, instead of for a United States city as naval tradition requires, the U.S.S. Canberra goes down the ways at the Bethlehem Steel company's Fore River yard, Quincy, Mass. The Canberra was christened by Lady Dixon, wife of the Australian Minister to the United States, now spending a holiday at Graeffenburg Inn. She will deliver the "Americanism Day" address in Gettysburg May 1st.

Supreme Court Reinstates Suits

Pittsburgh, April 21 (AP)—In the first test of the Public Utility commission's power to regulate rates of municipal water authorities the State Superior court Tuesday vacated a PUC order directing the State College borough authority to reestablish rates for consumers beyond the borough limits.

In an opinion written by Judge Charles E. Kenworthy, the court said: "We feel that the ends of justice require that the record be returned to the commission for a complete reconsideration of the case."

The PUC last July directed the borough authority to re-establish beyond the borough limits the rates which were in effect for water consumers after January 1, 1938.

The commission also ordered the authority to refund to some 119 consumers outside the borough limits the excess charge over the re-established rates.

PULLMAN WILL APPEAL RULING

Philadelphia, April 21 (AP)—The Pullman company, found guilty by a federal expediting court of violating the Sherman anti-trust act, today planned an appeal to the United States Supreme court in an effort to retain its car manufacturing business.

The company's president, David A. Crawford, said in Chicago the appeal would be taken to determine "the question of whether a company is to be deprived of the fundamental American right to bargain at arm's length with its customers and to select and make for itself the cars, the tools it uses in rendering to its customers the services it contracts to deliver."

Crawford made the statement yesterday after three judges of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the government's contention, filed 18 months ago by Assistant Attorney General Thurman Arnold, that the Pullman group of companies held an unlawful monopoly in operating sleeping car services.

Judges Herbert Goodrich, John Biggs, Jr., and Albert Maris, held in a 26-page opinion that the companies violated the Sherman law by requiring railroads who took their personal service to lease or purchase cars made by the Pullman company.

FREE POST-WAR WORLD HINTED IN FDR'S TALK

By WADE WERNER

Washington, April 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt's precedent shattering visit to Mexico, and the words he spoke there, were regarded in diplomatic circles today as another indication that United States proposals for a free postwar world will be based squarely on the good neighbor policy developed in this hemisphere.

The urgency of recent official emphasis on Pan American collaboration was highlighted by the circumstances that both the President and Vice President of the United States were absent from their country in the midst of war, both pursuing on foreign soil the task of cementing inter-American relationships.

2 Leaders Absent
Mr. Roosevelt's arrival in Mexico for his address last night at Monterrey marked the first time in United States history when both the head of the government and the Vice President were simultaneously on foreign soil, either in war or in peace.

As expounded by Mr. Roosevelt, the idea of the good neighbor in international relationships was more than a thought or a theme: It was a policy assiduously developed during the past decade and broadened to form the basis of Pan American collaboration pointing the way to peaceful collaboration of all nations.

"The 21 free republics of the Americas," he said, "during the past 10 years have devised a system of international cooperation which has become a great bulwark in the defense of our heritage and our future. That system, whose strength is now evident even to the most skeptical, is based primarily upon a renunciation of the use of force and the enshrining of international justice and mutual respect as the governing rule of conduct by all nations."

His words added weight to the declaration by Secretary of State Hull before the Pan American union last week that "the liberty that we jealously safeguard as the right of every American nation, great and small, is the same liberty which we believe should be established throughout the earth."

2 PUBLISHERS ARE HONORED AT PNPA MEET

New York, April 21 (AP)—Two Pennsylvania newspaper publishers were awarded parchment scrolls for long and meritorious service in journalism at a luncheon attended by 100 members of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' association here today.

Colonel Ernest Smith, president of the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., newspapers, Times-Leader and Evening News, evening, and Record, morning, all dailies, was presented with the award for outstanding achievements in journalism, and Harry Trout, Mannheim, Pa., Sentinel, received a similar award as a weekly paper publisher for his local newspaper service.

Professor Franklin Banner, head of the department of journalism at the Pennsylvania State college, State College, Pa., presented the scrolls. Publishers Smith and Trout were selected by a committee of officers of the PNPA and the Pennsylvania State college.

40-Year Service
Speaking of Colonel Smith, Professor Banner said, "because for nearly 40 years you have directed newspapers in your community that long ago became institutions of public service, because you have brought the newspaper profession a breadth of vision and understanding consistent with the best in journalism and because you are the publisher of newspapers that are not only purveyors of news, but friendly counselors of the community, the awards committee of the PNPA is proud to present you with this award."

Trout, a former teacher and state legislator also was commended by Banner, who said, "you are the publisher of a newspaper that has long been the recognized friend and helpmate of every worthy interest in your community and your country in the midst of war, both pursuing on foreign soil the task of cementing inter-American relationships."

Colonel J. H. Zerby, II, publisher of the Pottsville, Pa., Republican, and president of the PNPA, presided at the luncheon.

Postpone Action On Mining Bill

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—Failure of opponents to appear at a public hearing on a bill to bring independent anthracite mines under state inspection laws today delayed House action on the measure at least a week.

The Senate at the same time, shunted aside a bill to regulate strip mining in Pennsylvania, causing its sponsor, Senator John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland), to inquire if the bill would be killed. Republican Floor Leader Weldon B. Heyburn explained the measure could be called up any time and Dent said he would call it up.

Rep. Earl E. Hewitt, Sr. (R-Indiana), chairman of the House Mines committee, said another public hearing will be held on the inspection measure next Tuesday (10:30 a. m.) to give independent miners a chance to present their opposition.

NO FAVORS ARE GIVEN OR ASKED IN LEGISLATURE

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—No favors are asked by Democrats and none given by Republicans in the filibuster-bogged House.

"Legislative favors are out for the rest of the session" declared one Republican leader. "The filibuster has raised a wall over which no favors or concessions can be passed."

The leader, who asked that his name not be used, added that "the Republicans are not using retaliatory measures but officially the majority and the minority are not on speaking terms."

A Democratic chieftain explained for his side: "Officially the Republicans are up in arms about our insistence that bills be read at length but off the record there are quite a few who feel the slow-down is doing a lot of good."

Minority Claim
The filibuster has knocked a lot of nonsense off the calendar. Committee chairmen are no longer putting out a lot of silly bills just to please some member who wants to tell the folks back home his favorite piece of legislation finally came before the House for a vote."

Pittsburgh, April 21 (AP)—Mrs. Angeline Cardillo proudly displayed today the belated Christmas gift—a watch—sent by her son, Sergeant Charles V. Cardillo, 22, from north Africa.

The sergeant explained that was the only gift he could find in town formerly occupied and looted by the Germans.

The watch was shipped to the United States once, returned to Africa for inspection, then after arrival the second time, held up pending arrival of permission from the soldier for postal authorities to open the package. It was delivered to Mrs. Cardillo yesterday.

OPPOSITION TO STATE CONTROL OF ALL UNIONS

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—Opposition developed in both Democratic and Republican ranks today against a Senate bill empowering the state to regulate labor unions but sponsor George Woodward (R-Phila.) claimed "an even chance" for passage of his measure.

Senator B. B. McGinnis, Democratic minority leader, declared his party opposed the proposal while Senator Jacob W. Carr (R-Butler) asserted he objected to a provision bringing national unions under state regulation and added "a number of senators are not in favor of the bill."

GOP Chieftain Weldon Heyburn said after favorable committee report of the legislation that "it goes on the calendar for passage" possibly later this week. The Republicans have a 32-18 majority but two of their members have been absent. Twenty-six votes are needed for passage.

State Certificate

The measure would require labor organizations to file financial statements with the state. Committee amendments would ban political contributions by labor groups, require posting of collateral approved by the secretary of labor and industry for political loans, and require international unions to obtain certificates—renewable annually—to operate in Pennsylvania.

Woodward said the amendments would carry out recommendations of Governor Martin and that "it's now an administration measure."

Organized labor in the state vigorously opposed the entire bill at a hearing several weeks ago, taking exception especially to a provision, later eliminated, for filing membership records, contending it would expose union members to employer reprisals.

An Important Decision on Synthetic Rubber for Tires

For more than a year this company's Buna rubber patents have been royalty-free to everybody for the duration of the war. Last Thursday we offered, subject to the approval of our stockholders, to transfer permanently to the U. S. Government (through the Government's Rubber Reserve Company) patent rights on Buna-S . . . the tire rubber which forms the basis of the Government's synthetic rubber program. The Government's Rubber Director and Rubber Reserve Company have accepted this proposal. This is the first time, to our knowledge, that any company has offered to Government the right to license important patents—royalty-free—forever—to everyone—even to its competitors.

UNDER THE PROPOSAL:

1. The Government will have a free license for itself not only during the war, but for the entire life of the patents.
2. During the war the Government will have the right to issue royalty-free licenses for the entire life of the patents to everyone who cooperates with the Government in its war rubber program and reciprocates with similar licenses under its own patents.
3. There will be no payments to us or to others for the patent rights used.
4. The Government will increase its expenditures on synthetic rubber research to a total of not less than $5,000,000.

OUR PURPOSES:

1. To give every possible incentive to cooperation in the war rubber program.
2. To remove concern about the post-war patent situation from the minds of all those who have a contribution to make to this program.
3. To encourage American research and ingenuity—among independent workers, small companies and large—to build up a new and great American industry.
4. To continue to do everything we can to assure tires for America's cars—always.

FACTS ABOUT BUNA

In 1929 we bought from I. G. Farbenindustrie of Germany a minor interest in their Buna rubber processes for use outside of Germany.

During the 1930's these processes were further developed. The quality of Buna was improved, the range of its use widened.

In 1939—two years before Pearl Harbor—we bought out all German rights in the Buna processes for the U. S. A. Soon after, two large tire companies took out licenses. We also began building a Buna rubber plant of our own.

When war threatened the loss of our country's natural rubber supply, authorities agreed that Buna-S was America's best bet for tires. It became the basis of the Government's synthetic tire program.

Today the Government is spending over six hundred million dollars on its Buna-S program. Six rubber plants are in operation. By the end of 1943 completed plants will have a capacity of 705,000 tons per year, or more than the entire normal peace-time rubber requirements of the United States.

Confident of Passage

Republicans and Democrats alike expressed confidence the House would pass a bill next week and toss it over to the Senate, where there is virtually certain to be another pitched battle over the Ruml plan with its full-year tax cancellation features.

There were indications that agreement had been reached on special tax exemptions for men and women in the armed services, probably providing that they shall pay no taxes on the first $3,500 of service base pay, and also that any income tax liability outstanding on the death of a member of the services in wartime shall be cancelled.

If the compromise embraces a modified Doughton proposal to apply the moderate 1941 rates and exceptions to 1942 income, as indicated, it probably would erase 1942 tax obligations completely for about 7,000,000 persons and sharply reduce the liabilities on others.

Never before had such big bombers soared aloft from a carrier's 800-foot deck on a combat mission. But back in the United States the dangerous feat had been practiced by proxy on the airfield at Eglin, Fla. Veteran Jimmy Doolittle led the flock up at 8:20 a. m., and the others thundered aloft in quick succession.

It was noon with a bright sun shining when the squadron dived in at wave-top level over the coast of Japan.

In Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya, Kobe and Osaka—the cities that constitute the industrial heart of Japan—the bombs dropped with unerring accuracy. They blew up a gasoline plant, starting a fire that could be seen for 50 miles; blasted an aircraft factory and a shipyard, hit steel and powder plants, machinery works and railroad yards. Direct hits were made on a new cruiser or battleship under construction.

By specific order of Doolittle the emperor's palace went unscathed. He did not consider it a military objective.

The Japanese belatedly put up about 30 pursuit planes in all, unlimbered their anti-aircraft guns, and let out their barrage balloons. The anti-aircraft gunners shot down one of their own balloons, and American gunners knocked down several enemy planes.

Beyond Japan the elements did what the enemy had been unable to do. Bucking a storm, the big motors of the B-25's drank up their last gallons of gasoline.

"There in the darkness 6,000 to 10,000 feet above a strange land," said the report, "the majority of the men bailed out."

The rest crash-landed.

Most touched the earth of unoccupied China and despite innumerable hardships made their way to Chungking. Two plane loads went down in enemy-occupied territory and of those 10 men, two are unaccounted for and eight were captured or presumed captured.

One man, Corporal Leland D. Faktor of Plymouth, Ia., was killed. He landed by parachute in mountainous country and may have suffered a secondary fall. He was found dead.

To Require U.S. History Teaching

Harrisburg, April 21 (AP)—The Senate today received a House-approved bill to require teaching of American history in Pennsylvania high schools at least one semester in each school year. It is sponsored by Rep. Charles A. Auker (R-Blair).

Other bills passed and sent to Senate would:

Exempt real estate salesmen, real estate brokers and newspaper correspondents paid on a lineage basis from paying unemployment compensation taxes—Rep. Thomas B. Stockham (R-Bucks).

Permit county commissioners to join with any municipality in establishing a contagious disease hospital—Rep. Walter G. McAtee (R-Berks).

Provide free resident hunting licenses for persons in armed forces—Rep. Clyde Turbett (R-Juniata).

LEVY ON WAGES TO PAY TAXES IS INDICATED

By FRANCIS M. LE MAY

Washington, April 21 (AP)—Pay-as-you-go for America's 44,000,000 income taxpayers appeared assured today as House conferees came forward with a virtually complete compromise understood to provide for abatement of approximately 50 per cent of 1942 income taxes.

Members of both major parties agreed at a series of secret conferences on a 20 per cent withholding levy against the taxable parts of wages and salaries, to become effective July 1.

While details were withheld, indications were that the compromise arrangement would apply the much softer 1941 rates and exemptions to 1942 income, with some modifications.

Such a plan originally was proposed by Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.) of the House Ways and Means committee. It would not mean a flat 50 per cent tax cut on 1942 income of each taxpayer.

Confident of Passage

Republicans and Democrats alike expressed confidence the House would pass a bill next week and toss it over to the Senate, where there is virtually certain to be another pitched battle over the Ruml plan with its full-year tax cancellation features.

HORSE PRAIRIE BY CLEM COLT

Chapter 14

"What did you want to do that for?" Haines bleated. "More of your grandstand plays, I presume? One of these days you'll grandstand too often—"

"Don't count your chickens till they're in the pot boiling," Jones advised. "An' while I think of it, you can give me another receipt for that money I loaned you—an' make it up in pencil."

"I have one all ready for you," Haines said stiffly, and got it from his gilt filing cabinet. He pushed it across the desk at Jones. "You probably won't believe it, but that crazy ink was a prank of my clerk's—"

"Yeah," Tubac said. "It's too bad about him—an' it's goin' to be mighty bad for you if there's anything screwy about this one."

The banker got out a little gold penknife and got industriously to work on his fingernails. "If there's nothing else, Mr. Jones—"

"Don't rush me," Jones growled. "an' quit fiddlin' around with that dinkus. When I talk to a man I like to have his attention. What are you going to do about the Holeman grant now that I've got me a pardner—one of Sam Holeman's kin, by the way. His nephew, in fact—"

"I'm afraid that's a topic best left undiscussed. You'll be hearing from our attorneys—"

"You bring any lawyers into this business an' I'll close up this bank like an empty box!"

Haines' eyebrows jumped into his hair. "More threats?"

"Just a promise," Jones said. "an' here's another: If anything happens to my pardner, Haines, I'm gonna hold you strictly responsible. A eye for a eye is my motto—remember it! I'm for peace at any price—if it ain't too high. But if it's war you want, just say the glad word—"

"This is preposterous!" the banker spluttered. "Preposterous! If you can't conduct yourself like a gentleman—"

"Nope—I can't do that," Jones sneered. "My train ain't crossed enough widows and an' orphans. I'm jest a plain, brush-poppin' cow-poke—an', speakin' of cows, I got a big bunch comin'. Goin' to restock Horse Prairie. I've shoved all them Stampede strays outside the fence—an' they better stay outside if they know what's good for 'em."

Then the door popped open and Sue Lambert, white-cheeked and all of a tremble, gasped: "Mr. Haines—There's a man—I think it's the Bank Examiner!"

She was thrust aside then and a tall raw-boned man in a flat-rimmed hat stood lounging there, cold eyes inspecting them, thumbs grimly hooked in his galluses.

Jones had been expecting Blackwater, and all he could do was goggle while cold sweat came out on his forehead. Something had slipped, for the man in the door was Jinx Mueller, the U. S. Marshal.

To say that Tubac was surprised would be the mildest of understatement—he was petrified. With his mind on that note he had pried from the steps he'd been making small talk while awaiting Blackwater's appearance, and when the fist had pounded the door he had gleefully supposed it was Bill; but when he saw Jinx Mueller peering in you could have knocked him down with a feather. The U. S. Marshal was the last man he wanted to see.

But if he was shaking in his boots no one would have guessed it from the cool and casual look of him. With a grin he stuck out his hand. "Hare you, Marshal? Long time no—"

Tubac stopped as the marshal's cold blue eyes flicked at him. He knew this gun-throwing marshal's rep, and he'd a pretty good notion what the marshal thought of him. The marshal's look backed the thought up fully.

"Choke off that blat," Mueller told him curtly. "I've had all your horseplay I aim to put up with. I expect you figured to be pretty cute when you—"

"Now, Jinx," protested Tubac. "that was all a mistake—"

"You're bound to think so 'fore I git through. You slipped me once but there ain't no crook this side of the Rockies ever put up a deal on Jinx Mueller twice!"

The marshal's stare got cold as a gun bore. "I want a look through your wallet, Jones. Lay it down on the desk an' don't try no smart stuff."

Tubac did some quick thinking then. His hunch had been right when he'd given Jinx the slip in El Paso. Those bills had been marked! He'd ought to have guessed it; a guy like Chacon wouldn't hardly be packing no honest coin round with him.

Then abruptly in the flick of an eyebrow the truth broke across him. Jinx Mueller's visit was a little too pat. It smacked a deal too much of conjuring to be the result of blind chance. The note he had dug from the step had been money—Blackwater Bill hadn't left that for him. Blackwater—if he wasn't dead—must be hid out some place with a Stampede guard on him. It had been slick Lot Deckerman who had scrawled that note. No two ways about it.

Mueller said crisply: "It's all up, Jones. Put your gun and your wallet over there on the desk. An' no tricks."

Tubac shrugged. He did as directed. "Takin' up pocket munnin' these days, Marshal?"

"I'm goin' to have a squint through that wallet," Jinx said.

"You got me all wrong," Jones protested. "Ain't nothin' fancy about me no-way. Plain Tubac Jones, run-of-the-mill cowpucker from—"

"I'll give you the run part," Mueller conceded. He peered at Jones dourly. "C'mon, sport—where is it? What've you done with it?"

"Done with what?" Tubac looked plumb flabbergasted. "Honest, Jinx, I dunno what you're talkin' about."

"Yeah," Mueller jeered. "Inner—"

SPUD DETECTIVE OUTSMARTS ARMY

Hollidaysburg, Pa., April 21 (AP)—A "spud detective" from this Blair county community believes he has Pennsylvania's No. 1 potato problem licked.

Seven carloads of seed potatoes—virtually needed if the commonwealth is to meet its goal of a 25 per cent larger crop than last year—are on the way from Aroostook county, Maine, with 40 more cars expected before the end of the month.

The man who scouted out these seed potatoes after army purchasing agents, with their own food needs in mind, failed to find them, is Shelton R. Poole. For 15 years a Federal-State inspector in Maine and other states, he "knew where to look," explains Clyde Zehner, Agricultural Adjustment Agency state committeeman.

The seed potatoes he found are not certified, Zehner said, but are one year removed from certified potatoes and are inspected for disease before shipment.

cent like a unborn babe!" Then his look shed its conventional tolerance and Jones read the hate in his eyes. "You been shovin' counterfeit money," he spat.

Lafayette College Holds Commencement

Easton, Pa., April 21 (AP)—One hundred and thirty-six men received bachelor's degrees from Lafayette college at its 108th commencement Tuesday. Virtually all will enter the armed services or war industries, said Dr. William Mather Lewis, president.

Honorary degrees were presented to Lt. General William S. Knudsen, Dr. Stuart Nye Hutchison, moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and Mrs. Helen Fahnestock Hubbard, New York city.

Dr. Paul F. Cadman, economist of the American Bankers association, was the commencement speaker.

Attempted Break From Alcatraz

Harold M. Brest (left), Floyd G. Hamilton (center) and Fred Hunter (right) were three of the four long-term convicts identified by Warden J. A. Johnston of Alcatraz Prison, San Francisco, Calif., as having overpowered a captain of the guards and leaped into San Francisco Bay in an attempt to escape. Brest later was recaptured and federal prison officials said the other three were believed slain by prison guards or drowned.

LABOR LEADER BALKS AT PLAN FOR NEW STRIKE

Edgewater, N. J., April 21 (AP)—Several thousand war workers at the Aluminum Company of America's Edgewater plant, under local union orders to strike Thursday, were notified today by their international president, Nicholas A. Zonari, that he would not sanction any walkout.

The strike was set for Thursday night by President George Binsted of Local 16, Aluminum Workers of America (CIO), after, he said, union members had voted two to one in favor of it yesterday. He said he had telegraphed Zonari for approval of the action.

At Lafayette, Ind., Zonari issued this statement today through R. W. Pasnick, the union publicity director:

"I have instructed our district board member to see to it that action is withheld. I want an opportunity to carry the issues involved through the proper procedure."

NAZIS FAIL IN HEAVY BLOWS ON RUSSIAN FRONT

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, April 22 (AP)—The Germans kept up unceasing assaults in the Kuban valley of the Caucasus during the night, trying with a great weight of men, tanks and planes to crack the Red Army lines from the southern shores of the Sea of Azov to the Black sea at Novorossiysk.

All their efforts failed, although in some instances groups of Axis troops were able to reach the first lines of the Red Army's defenses, only to be cut down by murderous machine-gun, rifle and mortar fire, and by Russian bayonets in hand-to-hand fighting, the Soviet Information bureau's mid-day communique said.

In one sector, the Germans were reported to have lost upwards of 1,700 men in the last 48 hours.

Dive Bombers

The German air force, meanwhile, was being engaged in some of the vast intensive air battles of the campaign as Russian fighter planes met strong attempts to dive-bomb the Red Army's ground troops into submission.

The two-day score of plane destruction in this sector was reported as 93 to 42 in the Russians' favor, and the Red Army's aviation was increasing the number of its attacks on enemy ground troops.

(The German high command said in a communique broadcast from Berlin and recorded by The Associated Press that 77 Soviet aircraft were shot down yesterday, 20 of them by Finnish fighters, while two Nazi planes were missing. Light German naval forces were said to have sunk three Soviet supply vessels off the Caucasus coast. The land front was described as "generally quiet, with local fighting activity.")

New Air Assault

The feat of Soviet fighters in breaking up German attacks in the Kuban was matched by Soviet airmen who flew their "ADDS"—Russian abbreviation to designate long distance bombers—in a heavy attack on Tilsit Tuesday night.

Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, said that several dozen planes raided the East Prussian rail city, swooping in on it from four directions and giving it probably its heaviest blow to date. Numerous fires and explosions were reported from the rail yards and river docks, and the last flares to bomb the city started a blaze seen 100 miles away.

U.S.-MEXICAN RELATIONS ARE AIDED BY PARLEY

Corpus Christi, Tex., April 22 (AP)

—Relations between the United States and its close neighbor across the unfortified border to the south seemed more solidly cemented than ever today in the wake of historic meetings between President Roosevelt and Mexico's President Avila Camacho.

Stressing continental neighborliness and military solidarity, the conferences were held in both lands —amidst fiesta friendliness in Monterey on Tuesday and accompanied by the constant roar of warplanes here yesterday as the Naval Air Cadets of several American nations carried on their grim training during the unprecedented parleys.

American Neighbors

"From the point of view of continental defense and unity of purpose," President Roosevelt told the cadets as he and the Mexican Chief Executive lunched with them during an inspection of the Naval Air Training Center, "this kind of military training means a wide and long step forward in the relations of this hemisphere. Let the good work continue."

He said he was happy to greet Avila Camacho at the training center because a large number of Mexican cadets are among the youths from many American nations receiving flying instructions there, and termed that greeting on United States soil "one of the great American historical meetings."

It was President Avila Camacho's prompt repayment of Mr. Roosevelt's visit to the industrial city deep within Mexico the previous day, and closed the conferences during which the two spoke of how differences between their nations had been solved, of a joint solidarity in war and peace, and projected the Pan American good neighbor policy as a possible basis for world postwar unity.

Sister Kenny Fought For Polio Technique

Philadelphia, April 22 (AP)—Sister Elizabeth Kenny, the Australian nurse whose infantile paralysis treatment is curing hundreds of "hopeless" cases, says she had to become "belligerent" in order to have her technique accepted.

She even chided a doctor yesterday for referring to her "new treatment."

"I have presented a new concept," she corrected him at a meeting in connection with the course she is conducting at the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Medicine. "It would not take a medical man to see what I've been showing you. A blacksmith could see it."

Later, soft-voiced and gentle, she examined 13 children who are to receive her hot pack and muscular exercise treatment.

May Induct U.S. Citizens In Britain

London, April 22 (AP)—Labor Minister Ernest Bevin told the House of Commons today that the government is considering the question of inducting United States citizens residing in Britain into the British armed forces.

The Ministry of Labor announced on March 24 that under this act Allied nationals of military age, except United States citizens, who had not joined their own national forces would be liable to induction by Britain unless granted exemptions by their own governments.
